

Education Grants to Help You Get There

Love Cars?

Get all the facts at
www.carcareerbc.ca

How about a career with a New Car Dealer of British Columbia?

The New Car Dealers Foundation of B.C. offers CarCareerBC Education Grants to eligible students in British Columbia pursuing a career in the automotive industry.

A CarCareerBC Education Grant will provide financial support for recipients enrolled in approved automotive career apprenticeship and training programs.

Do What You Love
and have a great career!

www.carcareerbc.ca

Why Settle

for a career that just doesn't thrill you when you can join the auto industry and Do What You Love?

A New Car Dealer of British Columbia can put your passion to work, whether you're creative, love people, dream of making a positive difference, have a head for the latest technologies, or all of the above.

Tap into the benefits associated with working in a large and growing industry where sales are forecast to continue rising and jobs provide long-term stability, unlimited growth potential and highly competitive wages.

Check out www.carcareerbc.ca to find out about the opportunities available, the education paths you can take and the support that the New Car Dealers of British Columbia will make available to help you on the way.

A Great Opportunity

A New Car Dealer of British Columbia can provide you with the career you have been dreaming of.

17,000 people are employed by New Car Dealers of British Columbia. Car and truck sales are forecasting substantial growth creating increasing demand for trained employees in a wide range of skill sets.

The number of people employed in Canada's automotive service sector rose by 8% during the last five years and is expected to continue rising into the future.

A Future with a New Car Dealer of British Columbia

There are 405 New Car Dealer franchises in British Columbia offering long-term stability, unlimited growth potential and generous salaries that can grow with your skills and commitment.

New Car Dealers offer a wide range of opportunities including selling and fixing cars. Dealers also require marketing professionals, IT professionals, accountants and other enterprise level professions.

Talk to a guidance counsellor or send us an email to find out how joining the auto industry can position you to Do What You Love.

Career Choices

There are up to 40 different types of positions in a New Car Dealership including jobs in Sales, Service, Auto Body Repair and Refinishing, Parts, Administration and Management.

The New Car Dealers of British Columbia work with the Industry Training Authority, local school districts, colleges and career educational institutions to support automotive education programs. Programs available for students in British Columbia include:

- Secondary School Automotive programs
- Automotive Sales Training programs
- Automotive Trades Apprentice programs
- Automotive Trades Pre-Apprentice programs
- Sales, Management and Trades programs offered by Automotive Training Centre
- Canadian Dealership Management program
- Canadian Automotive Institute program

www.carcareerbc.ca

 NEW CAR DEALERS
ASSOCIATION OF B.C.